About MICappella

MICappella is a passionate and original Singapore vocal band with contagious energy. With Lee Ein Ein, Calin Wong, Goh Junyi, Eugene Yip, Ng Wei Jin and Peter Huang, they deliver professional a cappella performances with an edgy spin.

Despite a humble beginning, MICappella is committed to boldness and creativity in their music arrangement and performances. They also stress on creating original and outstanding visual and auditory experiences for international audiences.

The group slowly earned recognition and has represented Singapore in both local and international events since their inception. Some of these prolific events include Strawberry Festival 2013, Hong Kong Asian Music Festival 2013, Celebrate 2013 Countdown show 2012, Singapore e-Awards 2011, Singapore Youth Olympics (YOG) 2010, Super Idol 5 in Taiwan and many more.

They gained a great deal of exposure from the Chinese reality television singing competition, The Sing-Off China, eventually clinching the runner-up position. MICappella drew attention in the industry with their unique blend of English and Mandarin mainstream genres such as rock, pop, R&B, club and dance.

Performances/Appearances

| Year | Month | Description  |
|-------------|--------------|---|
| 2013        | April        | The band had a very eventful April as they had not one but 2 overseas tours, released their first ever full-length album &lt;Here We Go&gt; and performed at Mediacorp Channel 8's event of the year, Star Awards 2013. The band embarked on a 10-day Taiwan Spring Vocal Festival Tour which had them perform for fans in Tainan, Taipei's 西门町, Kaoshiung and Taoyuan. They gave audiences a sneak preview of songs from their latest album, Here We Go!  |

The band was also invited to perform the winner of this years' Theme Song Of The Year, a song from 动力火车's latest album, 《珍惜》

MICappella's biggest achievement for 2013 is the release of their first-ever full-length album which is currently climbing up the charts on YES933fm. What started out as an album to celebrate their performances on The Sing-Off China culminated in a 10-track album which features songs that were performed during the reality competition as well as 2 original songs – title track <Here We Go> as well as a heartbreaking ballad 《算了吧》

Immediately after the official release of <Here We Go>, the band then travelled to China where they were invited to take part in one of Asia's largest music festival in Beijing and Shanghai. The festival features 8 different stages with various music genres and a spectacular line-up of performers. Apart from performing in Shanghai and Beijing, the band also performed at the University Town in Guangzhou.

December

At Shine On 2013 (Nee Soon GRC), the band shared the stage with local “ge tai” superstar Hao Hao, Jasmine Tye, The Freshman, Jonathan Leong, Tay Kewei and many more.

They were whisked back to the Float where they showcased a specially arranged 2012 Countdown medley with hits such as Some Nights, Good Time, 你怕谁 by Da Mouth and Gangnam Style. 2013 began with the band performing the finale song with The Professionals, Trick and host Gurmit Singh.

Besides being present for the two local countdown parties, MICappella also appeared on Shenzhen Media Group's countdown show, together with other big names like Qu Wanting, Hu Xia and even Nicholas Tse!

Taking advantage of the pre-recording of their Countdown celebration show, MICappella held a one-night only 1.5 hour concert, Crazy Beyond Boundaries at Red Sugar Bowl (Livehouse).

The band performed at the Resorts World Sentosa 3 nights in a row during it's grand opening.
